Period – Post-modernist art

- Banksy is a British street and graffiti artist. He likes to remain anonymous and not let people know his true identity. He often draws in high visibility public places such as on buildings or train stations. His paintings are often about politics, war and other important topics.

- Banksy uses his art to give his opinion on events that are happening in the world. He is known as a political activist. The graffiti he paints shows what he thinks. The most common themes are his views on greed, poverty, despair, the obsession with celebrities, the government and war.

Word	Definition
Mono Printing 	Monoprinting is a one-off fine art printing technique that uses a sheet of paper/perspex to transfer a unique design onto a sheet of paper. No two monoprints are alike, and the design created can only be used once ('mono' = single).
Focal point	A focal point is the most visually interesting area of the composition. There can be multiple focal points, within a composition.

If graffiti changed anything - it would be illegal. Banksy?
